VIRTUAL HEALTH
How to empower your care teams

Empower your care teams with tools that boost their personal productivity by connecting clinicians, patients and care teams to deliver effective telehealth solutions.

Virtual Health leverages Office 365 and Skype for Business to enable clinical care through telemedicine, telehealth and collaboration at-a-distance. Connecting clinicians, patients and care teams to provide health services, and coordinate care. We will share examples of how to leverage this integrated platform to effectively communicate with patients, manage and connect caregivers, and improve quality and reduce costs. Care teams can use voice and videoconferencing to share documents, confer with each other, to meet with and diagnose patients.

Welcome to e-Health 2017

Whether you are a conference veteran or a first time attendee, we are delighted to welcome you to the e-Health 2017 Conference.

This year's conference is focused on The Future of Digital Health and the People who Benefit – and showcases the innovation and successes of Canada's digital health journey. There are so many ways to maximize your time at e-Health 2017:

Be sure to schedule yourself for the many excellent plenary and educational sessions, presented by some of our current and future health leaders.

Mark your calendar to attend the many unique program initiatives such as Hacking Health, the Showcase Theatre and Start Up Zone. Take advantage of the many networking opportunities from the trade show floor and social events, including the Canadian Health Informatics Award Gala on Monday, June 5th.

We hope that you find this year's conference an inspiring and dynamic way to learn, share and connect with your peers. We look forward to spending time with you over the next four days and thank you for joining us at e-Health 2017.

COACH

CANADA'S HEALTH
INFORMATICS ASSOCIATION

COACH: Canada's Health Informatics Association

www.coachorg.com

COACH connects, inspires, and educates the digital health professionals creating the future of health in Canada. Our members are a diverse community of accomplished, influential professionals working to make a difference in advancing healthcare through information technology. COACH fosters network growth and connection; brings together ideas from multiple segments for incubation and advocacy; supports members through professional development at the individual and organizational level; and advocates for the Canadian digital health industry.

Canadian Institute for Health Information (CIHI)

www.cihi.ca

The Canadian Institute for Health Information (CIHI) is an independent, not-for-profit organization that provides essential information on Canada's health systems and the health of Canadians.

Canadian Institute for Health Information

Institut canadien
d'information sur la santé

We provide comparable and actionable data and information that are used to accelerate improvements in health care, health system performance and population health across Canada. Our stakeholders use our broad range of health system databases, measurements and standards, together with our evidence-based reports and analyses, in their decision-making processes. We protect the privacy of Canadians by ensuring the confidentiality and integrity of the health care information we provide.

Canada Health Infoway (Infoway)

Hacking Health @ e-Health

‹✚› HACKING HEALTH

This year's Hackathon tackles one of Canada's most pressing challenges: workplace mental health and wellbeing. The goal of this hackathon is to develop innovative, evidence-informed, gender-responsive and culturally-appropriate digital mental health solutions that foster the labour force participation of women, men and gender-diverse people at risk of or struggling with workplace stress or mental health injuries. Hacking Health is partnering with the Canadian Institute of Health Research along with the e-Health Conference co-hosts to bring senior researchers, hackers and power users together to build prototypes for NINE project ideas over just 3 days.

Sunday Symposium: Empowering the Healthcare Consumer

Working from these three key facts:

1) The Canadian healthcare consumer is digitally literate and expects to be involved in their own healthcare decisions;
2) Use of consumer digital solutions across the country has doubled in the past two years;
3) Studies confirm what health leaders have long suspected: engaged patients have better health outcomes – this session will explore digital health technologies and their potential to transform the patient experience and improve patient outcomes.

Join us Sunday, June 4 to listen to Canadian and International perspectives on digital health; share experiences and lessons learned, and discuss consumer empowerment, the current state of consumer digital health solutions, patient centered data, and the vision for the future.

Participants of the symposium will:

• Listen to Canadian and international perspectives on digital health
• Share experiences and lessons learned; and
• Discuss the consumer empowerment, the current state of consumer digital health solutions, patient centered data, and the vision for the future.

Keynote Speaker:

Creating healthier stories starts here

Presenting the right information at the right time can help increase engagement, improve outcomes and the patient experience. Shifting to proactive health is part of the evolution of population health management, which ultimately helps us create healthier stories, improve care, lower costs, increase safety, align priorities, provide long-term value and change lives.

We will be hosting two symposiums this year.
We look forward to meeting you and hearing your stories, too.
