

Peter Watkins

Peter Watkins - is an Executive Director with the BC Government Chief Information Office and has responsibility for the BC Developers' Exchange and Enterprise DevOps initiatives. He is known as an innovative disruptor and ultimate tech change agent. Peter's recent work has founded a BC Government Continuous Service Improvement Lab where multi-disciplinary teams are trained in new agile methods and modern technologies. He is an innovative thinker and is the architect for the BC Developers' Exchange which leverages the power of the tech community and app developers to unleash their creativity against government business problems.