e-Health is a vital centre of Canadian digital health discussion and debate

- Held annually in Toronto or Vancouver since 2000
- Up to 1,500 attendees (in person)
- Held virtually in 2020, 2021, 2022
- In-person in Toronto in 2023 with 1,300 in attendance, and in Vancouver for May 26 – 28, 2024, with 1,200 in attendance – SOLD OUT!
- Heading back to Toronto, June 1 – 3, 2025

We are looking for submissions that describe initiatives, technologies, processes, or delivery models that have the potential to change the face and focus of healthcare delivery in Canada.

We want to hear stories from across all care settings: acute care, community care, home care, long term care, First Nations health, BIPOC communities, mental health, and telehealth/virtual health.

Presenting at e-Health is a great opportunity to share knowledge with digital health professionals from across the country.

e-Health 2025 Call for Abstracts opens September 9 and closes October 20.
