Bring us your most innovative ideas!

We're looking for submissions that showcase groundbreaking initiatives, disruptive technologies, and inventive approaches that could revolutionize how healthcare is delivered in Canada.

Healthcare transformation is happening in every setting, and we want to hear about it!

Bring us your stories from acute care, community and home care, long-term care, First Nations and BIPOC health, mental health, and telehealth/virtual care.

Presenting at e-Health means more than sharing knowledge — it's your opportunity to amplify your voice, connect with innovators nationwide, and leave your mark on the digital health community.

e-Health 2026 Call for Abstracts
opens September 8 and closes October 20.

e-Health main topics and tracks

1. Bridges Not Silos: The Future of Connected Health (formerly Connected Care and Interoperability)
2. No Patient Left Behind: Building Digital Health for All (formerly Digital Health Equity and Access)
3. Bots, Docs, and Burnout: The Future Health Workforce (formerly Digital Technology and Healthcare Human Resources)
4. Guardrails for Growth: Governing Health Data (formerly Health Data Governance, Security, and Privacy)
5. Power to the Patient in Digital Care (formerly Patient Engagement and Empowerment)
6. Next-Gen Care: Virtual Access, Real Impact (formerly Virtual Care, Telemonitoring, and Remote Patient Care)

Please note that presentation types are available here.

Bring forward projects that spark curiosity and drive innovation.

Whether it's a new idea, a cutting-edge technology, or a creative method, your submission should showcase a fresh perspective shaped by your setting, discipline, or approach.

Showcase how you've brought an e-health or digital health idea to life!

Even if every step wasn't perfect, the lessons learned from your journey are just as valuable as the successes. Both can inspire new thinking and knowledge across the community.

More tips

- Address a topic of importance
- Share your experience, findings, and result
- Clearly describe the experience and expected outcome or a new initiative with an approved strategic plan and budget
